

APPENDIX 1

Items Administered but Not Factor Analyzed

My abnormal muscle control or involuntary muscle movement—

1. Was difficult to stop or "turn off."
2. Was unpredictable.
3. Made me pay close attention to weather conditions that might affect my abnormal muscle control or involuntary muscle movement.
4. Made me pay close attn to aspects of the physical environment that might affect my abnormal muscle control or involuntary muscle movement.
5. Was easy to trigger, when I wanted to.
6. Was triggered by rolling over rough surfaces.
7. Was triggered by the stress I was under.
8. Was triggered by the temperature of the air around me.
9. Was triggered by someone touching me.
10. Was triggered by my emotions.